Blaimore Returned Soldiers' Bureau

The meeting of citizens held in the town office last night, for the purpose of organizing a branch of the "Returned Soldiers Bureau," was well attended.

The meeting was presided over by Mayor Sinclair, who was unanimously chosen chairman.

W. Joyce was elected secretary of the local branch, and the following working committee was appointed: John Angus McDonald, Mrs. W. Howe, W. J. Bartlett, J. Churbonnier, Mrs. J. M. Carter, Mrs. J. R. Smith and H. E. Lyon.

The object of this new organization is:

1. To furnish a hearty welcome to every soldier on his return from the front.
2. To endeavor to find suitable employment for all such returned soldiers.
3. To furnish help of all such complete information regarding the disposition of all such cases, or of any case that may be beyond the power of the local league to properly deal with.

4. To advise head office and furnish lists of promised openings for returned soldiers, together with such other duties as in the opinion of the commission will further the interests of the Bureau, and in general to create and maintain a strong patriotic sentiment in favor of the valiant men who have borne the nation's burden at the price of personal loss.

The work of this branch of the "Wounded Soldiers Bureau" is perhaps more important than we at present can imagine. The work at present being accomplished by the committees of the Patriotic Fund is important while the war lasts, but the work of the Bureau will continue as long as the natural life of a wounded returned hero of the present great conflict shall last. While the above working committee has been appointed, it is the duty of every citizen to assist.

There is reason to expect that before the end of, or after, the present great holocaust, there will be many of our immediate citizens affected. Soldiers will be returning disabled so as not to allow them to follow their former occupation, and the importance of such an organization as the "Wounded Soldiers Bureau" will only then be fully realized.

Whenever information is received by the secretary, regarding any wounded soldier being homeward bound, meetings of the executive will be called, and the necessary steps taken for the reception. It is the duty of every "worthy" citizen of Canada who has not already enlisted, but who, whether they are or not already doing their part at home, to assist in every way the efforts of the local branch of the "Returned Soldiers' Bureau."

The death occurred at Burnis on Monday morning of Mark Holloway, one of the oldest settlers of the Foothills district. Mr. Holloway had reached the ripe age of 83 years and always maintained a robust constitution and pleasing disposition. But a short time ago he visited Blaimore, and remarked at that time that he never felt better in his life, and hoped yet to see another score of years in this life. He is survived by one daughter in Alberta, Mrs. Lee, with whom he resided. Interment took place on Tuesday at the Livingston cemetery, and was largely attended.

Letters From Our Soldiers

Letter From

Gunner Schofield

Gunner M.E.S. 40540, 10th Battery, 3rd Brigade
C.F.A., 1st C.E.F., January 2nd, 1916.

Dear Old Bartlett:

Time and again I have been on the point of writing you, to wish yourself and The Rag every success; but I have put it off for one reason or another until now.

It seems an awful while since I left to go to Lethbridge to enlist; but as a matter of fact it was only a few days after war was declared.

I saw Walter Howe at Valcartier, but he is the only Blaimore boy I have come across, though I guess there's quite a bunch of them now.

A brother of E. K. Beer's, of the Royal Bank, is in this battery. He tells me that E. K. has not enlisted.

I was awfully surprised and deeply gratified to receive a Christmas parcel today from the Blaimore school staff and scholars. Out here, far from home and friends, with very often a long silence when one does not receive as much as a post card, we are inclined to think that all this newspaper talk about Canada's unstinted gratitude to us is just composed of common or garden platitudes as an aid, first and foremost, to recruiting. Such recollections as, "I have just mentioned, bring it home to us better than anything else could do, that we are not forgotten, and our hearts are warmed thereby."

I wish you would send me the "Enterprise" regularly, W. J. I'd be real pleased to have it, for there is no place in Canada for which I have a warmer place in my heart than dear old Blaimore, and I want to keep in touch.

With ordinary good luck, we all believe that 1916 will see the end of the Hun, but we want to see them utterly beaten before any peace talk is put forward.

Remember me to all the boys - and, of course, the ladies!

With kindest regards and all best wishes, I am,

Very Sincerely yours,
MAYNARD SCHOFIELD.

It might interest some of The Pam people to know that the following old timers from The Crow all met on Christmas Day, somewhere in France, and spent a few pleasant hours together: Bob Mills and Peter McInnis, of Blaimore; Thomas Dawson, of Frank; Campbell McPherson and Logan Campbell, of Coleman; and Slim Barry of Hillcrest. All are in the best of spirits, and only waiting for the day that will finish Fritz.

The rumor about Slim Barry being killed is not true, as I had the pleasure of shaking hands with him on Christmas Day. Slim wishes old Dan was over here with the boys. He thinks that if Dan was here, we would be ready for the big march to Berlin.

The boys send their best regards to all their friends, and hope to be amongst them soon.

New Year Resolution

The one appropriate resolve for the Canadian Red Cross in the coming year is a determination to discharge faithfully all the Red Cross obligations which 1916 will impose.

Thus, like all New Year's resolutions will not be an easy one to keep. For instance, the assumption of Government that the Canadian forces will be increased to 400,000 automatically doubles the work of the Canadian Red Cross. Further, with a probable increase in the intensity of warfare during the coming year, there will be a corresponding, incalculable increase in the demands on the Red Cross.

Thus it is a conservative estimate that the output of the Canadian Red Cross will have to be two to two and a half times as large as in 1915, a year which, as the annual meeting of the Canadian Red Cross will show, was itself a year of astounding Canadian Red Cross Records. A resolution to shoulder this increased obligation is indeed no light one. It can pass out of the realm of noble but good intentions into the clear light of concrete achievement only if the latest Red Cross will of this country is translated into unflagging activity on the part of every Red Cross supporter.

The same faith however, which inspires our parliament to decree the doubling of our military strength leads confidence also to our Red

From "Sniper" Chas. Roy

Rest Camp, Belgium,
December 28th, 1915

To The Teachers and Pupils, Blaimore School.

DEAR FRIENDS - Many thanks for your very useful parcel which arrived today. It is certainly one of the most sensible parcels I have seen out here. Every bit of it will be useful, especially the soap, ha, ha.

Well, I suppose you will wonder what I am doing, so I guess I owe it to you to tell you what little we are allowed to tell. Well, since we have landed over here we have been doing our bit in the front line. We have not had any wild mix-ups as yet, but we have had a few pretty hot artillery bombardments. Through the big loss battle the Canadians were giving the British a big assistance by putting up a fake attack. We just saw heavy bombardment to stir Fritz up. This lasted a couple of hours. Then we threw smoke-bombs and started rapid fire. Fritz thought we were going to come over and visit him, and he sure was worried. The boys were wanted to go, too, but the idea of it all was just to lead Fritz's spare troops and keep them from reinforcing his line against the British attack.

It was a fine time, too. We lost a few men by a couple of "coul boxes," but nothing like what the Huns have done during the rapid fire. It was some of our boys were under a gun on the parapet, letting Fritz have lead as fast as they could work their rifles. Talk about nerves! My old comrade and I ducked my head down to have a look at it and a stream of lead flew over where my head had been. My canteen was sitting on the rear parapet. Maybe it wasn't riddled. Since then things have been very quiet except for a little attempt Fritz made to break through on the line. Needless to say, he failed.

I am the company "sniper" and am equipped with a telescopic sight rifle. My work consists of ventilating the hide of every Fritz I see, and I am doing my little best at it, too. It seems to you, maybe, like premeditated murder, but you were present and saw some of Fritz's tricks you would change your opinion. The German sniper gets a good name, so it is a continual game of hide and seek. I have a couple of "posts" and a good pair of binoculars, and as the German trenches are only a trifle over one hundred yards away, and closer in one place, you will readily understand that it is a little dangerous for Fritz to spot a loophole or to show his head. It is sure some game. Up to the present I have been the winner, though once or twice it was close to a draw or loss. I receive The Enterprise quite often. It sure is great to have news from the old home up here in this "irrigation belt." Such is the main product of Belgium, should be entered in the geography, because it appears to be only too true. It rains almost continually. Yesterday (Christmas Day) was sure wet. There was no let up to hostility along the line though. We don't stop for Sunday, Dominion holidays, or anything else over here. However, you have no idea how good old Cross' New Year's wish to me right now. Well, I guess this will be all for now. With many thanks for your thoughtful kindness.

I remain, yours gratefully,
Chas. H. Roy.

Others, again, advocate what they call perambulating schools. Somebody has nicknamed these proposed institutions, "Cook cars with a College Education." Such a car could be built and run for less than $1000.00 a year that would make three months' rental amount to only $25 or thereabouts. The car would be built for the teacher's salary. Serbia — Appeals to America
STRICTLY NON-PROFITABLE

[illegible]

The United States and the institution of the League of Nations were established as a protest against conditions prevailing in old Europe. Serbia is a fit example of the conditions that have prevailed in hard fate, because of her democratic tendencies.

Over five hundred years of black slavery, Serbia freed herself from the Mohammedan Sultan, but now she is being enslaved by a higher Christ the merciful, considers it a glory to crush and enslave the people of the East, and is thus leading into the light of freedom.

The people of Serbia do not hate the Sultan, but they do hate the Kaiser, wonder why the Kaiser is imitating the Sultan in his destructive work. They are afraid of the Kaiser's killing and dying, facing starvation and death, and they are crying out as he appeals for aid. Only America was framed by Father Vel Nicolai.

"The United States and the institution of the Kaiser have been created as a protest against conditions prevailing in the United States and throughout America. In Europe, has had a hard fate, because of her democratic tendencies.

"After five hundred years of black slavery and oppression, the Mohammedan Sultan, just now a Christian Kaiser, himself prescribes a new religion, and he is going to glory to crush and enslave this people, and to bring them back into the light of the freedom.

"The people of Serbia do not want to be a part of this, and they wonder why the Kaiser is imitating the Mohammedan Sultan.

"Serbia is silently, painfully fighting and dying. Facing starvation and death, they wish America can relieve Serbia."

Higher Economy

Among the Japanese economy it is held to be a high virtue. Two old miners of Tokyo were one day discussing the matter.

"I manage to make a fan last about twenty years," said one, and the other replied that he had never actually open the whole fan and wave it carelessly. I open only one section and use it for a long time. When I am tired I then open the next, and so on until the fan is eventually used up."

"That is a very good idea," the first claimed the other. "What awful extravagance! In my family, we use only one or three fans. We never open this is how we do it: We open the whole fan, but we don't wear it out by waving it. We use it for a long time. Still, like this, under our nose and

A Wonderful Clock

Petrograd contains the most wonderful clock in the world. There are ninety-five faces to this curious timepiece, which indicates simultaneously the time of day at thirty different places, the position of the movement of the earth around the sun, the phases of the moon, the signs of the zodiac, and the date according to the Gregorian, Greek, Muslim, and Hebrew calendars. The work took two years to put together after the clock had been sent in detached pieces from Switzerland to Russia.

as good as anyone could possibly make." We hear so much of this and at a breed being positively the best at where evidence is not conclusive one is apt to be much convinced and decide that that will be the best all-round result.

My response more people who keep hens for the eggs they lay and for any other purpose, should make a good many into the situation at they must select something with a little more besides to get eggs by they think it necessary to have the scaled egg breeder. Just look at the evidence however and what do we find? In the fourth laying trial at Storrs, White Wyandotte pen was first with 2,072 eggs, Rhode Is. second with 2,039 and Leghorns third with 2,001. The average egg men for the breeds was White Wyandotte 146, White Leghorns 141, Rhode Island Hen 150.8, Plymouth Rocks 146.2. By this it is plain to be seen where White Wyandotte

So much for the question of eggs. The following is a list of the winners. It is known that in all breeds some of the best performers will show, and breeders will be glad to see the birds as well as good, but the Wyandottes are the only breed that will show the matter of general high average.

are taken. Being of a mixed color they always have an uneven action.

These breeders give very large measure of consideration to the utility of their stock. They are not breeders promoting its welfare. This is its high position from which they are available to the public. This wide range of usefulness makes them the most valuable stock in any wide area and under decidedly adverse conditions.

So many people who keep fowls at home are ignorant of the fact that they have stock which has been bred for utility. They have stock which has been bred by a system of liberal feeding from which they are able to produce a large quantity of eggs at a comparatively small cost. What cannot be more pleasant to a sportsman than to have a large quantity of eggs at a comparatively small cost? What cannot be more pleasant to a sportsman than to have a large quantity of eggs at a comparatively small cost?

OF LOCAL AND GENERAL INTEREST

H. G. Goodvee was down from Coleman on Sunday.

A joint meeting of the council and school board was held on Monday night.

A man should never think of his wife as a woman; when he thinks of her as a woman he is in danger.

Dr. Olivier, who has recently taken up practice at Coleman, was visiting some of his old friends here on Wednesday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the town council will be held on Thursday night next, when all those who claim to be grieved should give vent to their troubles.

A number of Masons from Coleman came down on Wednesday night to assist District Deputy W.
L. Outinette in installing the officers of Rocky Mountain Lodge.

It is said that the fine imposed on H. C. McBurney, at Coleman, recently, as a result of charges preferred by License Inspector Hud-kins, will be refunded on grounds of wrongful prosecution.

Rev. Mr. Amos, until recently in charge of a Methodist mission in the Forvie district, arrived in town on Wednesday night, and will have charge of the services at the Union church on the next two Sundays.

Private David Kemp, of the First Canadian Pioneers, now in Home-low, London, spent New Year holidays at his old home in Scotland.
It is twelve years since he left the Old Country, this being his first trip back. He says there are lots of changes.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Ferguson preached both morning and evening at the Union church on Sunday last. His morning subject was "Faith in Time of Trouble," and the evening subject "Patriotism and Christianity." Both subjects were ably dealt with.

The weather changed with the publication of the Coleman Bulettin this week, and now the atmosphere feels more springlike. For about eight days the temperature hovered around 25 degrees below, sometimes going as far as 30 degrees.

At a meeting of the young men of Blairmore on Tuesday night, it was decided that the time occupied by a visit from a young lady during 1916 should not exceed twenty minutes. W. A. Beebe was elected secretary of the new bachelors association.

Unusual activity is prevailing in the British Columbia logging camps for this season of the year on account of unabated demand for British Columbia Lumber Camps which usually close down temporarily in December are working to full capacity.

Headed by Gustav Hartwig, who is looked upon by the authorities as a particularly dangerous German spy, eleven German prisoners successfully made their escape from Amherst internment camp Tuesday morning, despite the fact that the camp was closely guarded by soldiers. They dug a tunnel under the fence, a distance of 160 feet.

Some of our local sports are talking of getting up a "ladies' opportunity" dance for the night of Tuesday, February 29th, which comes but once this year and not again for some time to come. The suggested idea is that the ladies undertake arrangements and invite the gentlemen. This is to be an opportunity dance, and was little the young or old young ladies who fail to avail themselves of it.

H. C. Graham, inspector of cur-toms was in town during the week.

Mrs. Kidd's maternity home, Box 95, Phone 151. Wedding cakes furnished.

Mrs. L. H. Putnam, who had been visiting friends in Calgary, returned to town last week end.

W. A. Beebe attended the dance given at the Windsor hotel at Lundbreck on Friday night last and reports the Lundbreck as gay trippers.

There is now more than $1,000 worth of seized liquor in a bonded warehouse at Chatham, N.B., for the disposal of which the law has no provision.

In a letter to Mr. and Mrs. J. R.
Smith, Lieutenant J. Menard extends his thanks to the children and staff of the Blairmore school for parcel received about Christmas time.

Mrs. Howe this week received word from her son Joseph, who after sufficiently recovering from a recent operation is now in a convalescent little in England. Joseph was hoping soon to be back.

The secretary is busy making up the tax enforcement returns. As all unpaid taxes for 1915 will be included in these returns, we will advise all who can to pay up and thus avoid having to pay additional penalties.

Remember the date of the annual ball of Cowley I.O.O.F. Friday next, January 28th. Preparations are being made for a dandy supper to be served at the Cowley hotel at midnight, and an all round good time is assured to all who attend.

The number of moose being killed this season in the country north, northwest and northeast of Edmonton exceeds the records of all previous years. Fifty one carcasses have been shipped to Edmonton from a single siding in the north country.

In justice to Councillor Beebe, we may say that he does not declare himself as opposed to the improvements effected at the town office by the erection of a "high board fence," but that he was opposed to any attempt being made by any individual member of the council or officials to contract for anything without the consent of the council as a body.

Andy Good, who for years conducted the Summit hotel and wild animal and bird menagerie at Crow's Nest, died rather suddenly at Spokane last week end. Up to the time of his demise he had conducted a poolroom and lunch counter in Spokane. The remains were brought to Coleman on Sunday, where interment took place in the family plot on Wednesday afternoon. Andy was well known throughout this district, and an unusually large crowd of people turned out to pay their last tribute of respect to the dead.

Messrs. John and Samuel Patterson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, who have been connected with the famous 13th since its formation about a year ago, joined Major Bob Coulthart's "fighting devils" in the No. 2 Tunnelling Engineers at Calgary, and left for an unknown destination on Monday morning. Among other local boys who went with the Engineers were: Tom Marsh, Fred Parker, Harvey Wallace, Sam Paton and Joe Radford, of Frank; Nat Evans, Doc McLeod, William Sloan, Cliff Miller, Tom Hutson, Jack Longworth and Hugh Deaton, of Bellevue; Jim Miller, George Wilde and Dick Price, of Hillebert, all of whom were with the 13th.

L. H. Putnam is at present paying a business visit to Calgary.

The Pincher Creek council has decided to take local proceedings to collect overdue taxes.

Mrs. A. Sparks had the misfortune to slip on a sheet of ice last night, breaking one of her legs above the ankle.

Frank Happenings

A patriotic meeting was held on Sunday last by the members of the local miners' union to consider a reduction of the amount promised each pay for the patriotic fund. It was decided, after considerable discussion to reduce the amount from 2 to 1 per cent, to take effect with the next pay raise. A vote was made among those who are not miners to see how many are in favor of the reduction or how many prefer to continue the 2 per cent.
Three new members were added to the local committee, Messrs. John Anderson, Jean Fourneau and A.
Campbell. The original committee comprised Messrs. R. Niven, J.
Murray and A. L. Blais.

Frank and Coleman met here on Tuesday night in a return round hockey game. Frank was successful in reversing their defeat at Coleman by a score of 6 to 4.

Pincher Creek's hockey team came up on Wednesday and played the local seniors in the afternoon and Coleman at night. The afternoon game was a good one from a hockey standpoint, but was spoiled by the referee. Had the game been handled as it should have been, a better result would have been realized. Pincher Creek won by 10 to 6. The teams were as follows:

Frank	goal	P. Creek
Best	hooker	hooker
Furner	point	Taggart
Varley	rover	Marcellus
Thomas	l. wing	Pelletier
Pearson	centre	Marquis
McLeod	r. wing	Dobbie

A. Tristram visiting friends in Bellevue on Wednesday.

H. Varley, of Bellevue, visited old friends in Frank on Tuesday.

The carnival ticket promises to be a success. We hope to publish it's results next week.

On January the 26th, the O'Dell, Hart & Hall Co. will introduce Major Hall, the smallest man in the world, direct from Australia, at the local opera house.
O'Dell and Hart are famous singers, dancers, jokers and acrobats, and their performance will be somewhat of a treat.
